Note to Authors

The following technical rules should be strictly followed in the preparation of text:

(a) Manuscripts should be typewritten, double spaced, on heavy duty, white bond paper 8½ x 11 inches (22 x 28 cm), with wide margins. The original and two xeroxed copies, including three sets of figures and tables, should be sent to the Editor:

Frederick F. Kao, M.D., Ph.D.
State University of New York, Downstate Medical Center
450 Clarkson Avenue, Brooklyn, New York 11203

(b) Title Page. Full title, list of authors, institution, laboratory, or clinic of origin, running title, mailing address and telephone number should be included.

(c) Abstract. An abstract not exceeding 100 words should be included and typed on a separate sheet.

(d) References in the text to literature cited should be given the author's name and year of publication; e.g., (Smith et al., 1978). They should be confined to published works that are directly pertinent. At the end of the text, on a separate sheet, references should be listed in alphabetical sequence with full titles. Abbreviations of journal names should follow the style of Chemical Abstracts, List of Periodicals, Vol. 55, 1961. For example:

Smith, J.J. and S.S. Goldberg The significance of acupuncture in treating pains. Journal, 1:1-10, 1978.

(e) Legends for illustrations and footnotes should be typed on separate sheets, double spaced. Footnotes are to be consecutively numbered in superscript throughout the text, and should be used as sparingly as possible.

(f) Figures should be clear, glossy, unmounted prints, no larger than 8½ x 11 inches (22 x 28 cm) and supplied in duplicate with special attention to sharp focus and contrast to guarantee clear reproduction. The figures should be ready, in all respects, for direct processing. They must be prepared by a professional draftsman, and the lettering and symbols should be large enough to reproduce legibly after reduction. On the back of each print, mark with pencil the names of authors and the total number of figures, indicating the top of each.

(g) Tables. Whenever feasible, photographs of tables should be prepared.

(h) Charges to Authors. Exceptionally numerous illustrations or elaborate tables will require special arrangement with the publisher for sharing the cost of reproduction. Color figures or plates will be accepted only at the author's expense for engraving, printing and handling.

(i) Reprints can be ordered in excess of 100 and a purchase order form will be included with galley proofs.

(j) Terminology. All terms used in submitted manuscripts should be in accordance with the nomenclature set by the Committee on Nomenclature of The American Journal of Chinese Medicine. Non-conformity with the standard nomenclature could delay the publication of the article. Consult Volume I and other issues for the standardized nomenclature. When in doubt, write to The American Journal of Chinese Medicine for further information. The Editor reserves the right to alter non-standard terminology in all manuscripts.

(k) Metricality. All measurements must be in metric units. English units should also be given parenthetically if the measurements were originally done in English units.
